HELPING YOUNG PARENTS TO PREPARE FOR BIRTH

Course Introduction

With health service resources so stretched there is increasing expectations that other professionals provide initial advice to young parents. Knowing what to advise and what to refer onwards can be confusing and this workshop will provide delegates with practical advice, signposting resources and current guidelines for young parent professionals.

Course Details

This ONE DAY course is suitable for Connexions PA's, Young Parent Coordinators, Children's Centre Managers and Workers, and Parenting Practitioners.

By the end of the programme participants will have experienced:

- Discussions about preparing for birth;
- The role of the non-health professional;
- Initial advice;
- Supporting young parents to access health services;
- Current guidelines;
- suggested resources.
